"Although defense attorneys are now trying to pin down court authorities on the exact date, we have been inform that the 'kidnap' trial will be held during the Feb. 17th term of Court in MONROE. As soon as we know the day that trial will begin, we will immediately notify all chapters.

"A meeting of attorneys and defendants to establish legal strategy and to initiate steps to unify the two committees was held on Jan. 25th. Another such meeting is planned for this coming weekend in MONROE.

"All indications are that the MONROE authorities mean to press for the conviction of the defendants on the trumped - up kidnap charges. The MONROE courtroom has been the scene of several notorious injustices and many lesser - known legal atrocities. The recent record offers no hope for a lessening of its vindictiveness against those who fight for freedom and racial equality. Attorneys are preparing for a difficult trial.

"It is therefore essential for all CAMD Chapters to intensify efforts to raise the money required for the best possible legal defense and to arouse the widest public protest in behalf of the defendants.

"JAMES BALDWIN gives Defense Boost.

"A great boost was given defense efforts when JAMES BALDWIN, noted writer and Civil Rights champion, joined CAMD and spoke out against the frameup.

"Not only have we received substantial financial support in direct response to our mailing of MR. BALDWIN's letter, but it has resulted in important publicity for the case.

"The Jan. 27th issue of I.F. STONE weekly reprints the letter in full. A front page head, 'JAMES BALDWIN On a Kidnapping Which Never Happened, pp2, calls the attention of MR. STONE's readers to the letter.

LA 100-61770

"MR. BALDWIN will further assists the defense by speaking at a benefit meeting in New York on Feb. 19th.

"What Chapters Can Do.

"There are only a few weeks left now in which to inform people in your community about the coming trial and to raise the necessary money. (We estimate that an additional $2,500 to $3,000 is needed for legal expense).

"1) With the imminent trial date (and the assistance of MR. BALDWIN's letter) we have found it much easier to obtain speaking engagements and contributions from organizations. All that is necessary is for someone to get on the phone or visit churches, trade union locals, civil rights organization, etc. to arrange speaking engagements and collections. Response from New York groups has been heartening, and can easily be duplicated in other areas. Because appointments must sometimes be made several weeks in advance, it is important for chapters to immediately start on this work. (2) In addition to funds, speakers can ask audiences for names of those who will be willing to participate in demonstrations locally, or would like to go down to MONROE to observe the trial. As soon as we have the exact trial date, we would like to plan simultaneous demonstrations in many cities. Names of those who would like to go down to observe the trial should also be taken (only those who can pay their own way. It might be possible to organize car pools so expenses will be shared."

ACTION:

Informant was thoroughly interviewed and could add nothing further to the above.

All necessary action in connection with this memo has been taken by the writer.

APPENDIXCOMMITTEE TO AID THE MONROE DEFENDANTS

A source advised on May 10, 1962, that the Committee to Aid the Monroe Defendants (CAMD) was formed during September, 1961, by the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) in New York City. The SWP originally proposed the formation of this committee during discussions with various left-wing and liberal tendencies and offered a sum of money to initiate activities.

Source advised that the SWP, however, was unsuccessful in forming a committee of various tendencies and proceeded to organize the CAMD and promote its activities under the domination and control of the SWP.

Source advised that the aims of the CAMD are to afford financial support and counsel for ROBERT F. WILLIAMS and four other defendants who were involved in a racial incident on August 27, 1961, at Monroe, North Carolina. The SWP hopes to dramatize this incident nationally and internationally through the CAMD and thus attract individuals to the SWP aims and principles by playing a leading role in the integration struggle.

According to the source, the organization and impetus of CAMD activities throughout the various parts of the United States such as obtaining sponsors and the raising of funds, are the results of the efforts of various SWP branches.

The above source advised on September 6, 1962, that the headquarters of the CAMD is located at 168 West 23rd Street, New York City.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

BILL PRICE ("The Guardian") - took

PHILLIP LUCE (former member of PL; wore his hair red - DAGOBERTO said he saw him.

The following were among the speakers at the rally:

A.J. MUSTE
I.F. STONE
DAVE DELLINGER
DIXIE BAYOU (of MPI)

*Note: I.F. STONE also said he hoped that 30,000 will attend the Washington Convention on November 27.

All the speakers were opposed to the U.S. troops being in Viet Nam. I.F. STONE said that those responsible for the parade were accused of "conspiracy". He said that the real "conspiracy" was on the part of the Pentagon. He also spoke disparagingly of EISENHOWER and said that MAC ARTHUR had warned against the U.S. getting involved in Asian wars.* DAVE DILLINGER announced that ROBERT THOMPSON, one of the sponsors of the parade, had died that morning, as a result of the injuries he had received while jailed some years ago. DIXIE BAYOU, of MPI, urged Puerto Ricans not to comply with the Draft. She spoke against U.S. occupation of Puerto Rico and in favor of independence in all Latin America. She also expressed greetings to the people of Viet Nam in their struggle for independence. Following the speakers, there was entertainment, including a song by Reverend GARY (?) DAY (Negro, who is blind, and sings on New York streets).

NY 100-155719

The following were seen before the rally, along Fifth Avenue, carrying copies of "The Militant" (probably selling them):

JIM HERMAN (SWP)
JOHN TORRES (visiting, from San Francisco Branch)

The following spectators were seen along the Parade route:

VINCENT HENDRICKS (SWP)
RITA CHEREN (SWP)
BOB DES VERNEY (SWP)

There were no incidents of civil disobedience observed, and there were no speakers from the SWP and YSA at the rally. The only incident of violence, observed by the writer, occurred at Fifth Avenue and 88th Street when marchers carrying a banner and flag of Cuba passed. At this point, some spectators (may have been part of a contingency of New York State Young Americans For Freedom) broke from behind police barricades and attacked them, but order was restored in several minutes. The "Bread and Puppets" Theater marchers with distorted puppets angered the crowd at 88th Street, but no violence occurred here.

The SWP and YSA members did not march under their organizational names; they marched under "Peace Groups" and "Students and Youth". As far as could be seen, they carried no signs. Some YSA sympathizers marched under "Unaffiliated" (ie., JEFF MARKLER).

March 10, 1966

There was a meeting at Town Hall on March 3, 1966 on the Vietnam question. It was held in New York City and began at 8:30 p.m.

(U) The featured speaker was a Sergeant Duncan, who had been with the special forces in Vietnam. He said that we used interrogation methods to get information but did not describe them. He stated that we shouldn't talk about the enemy's atrocities when we committed them ourselves. He said that civilians had been picked up as suspects for the sole purpose of carrying material across the country.

Stanley Sheinbaum, of Ramparts, magazine said that Cambodia was next on the United States' list, and that the public was being softened up to this through Life magazine and other sources. He had traveled in Thailand and through that area.

Sandra Levinson, a faculty member in political science at City College, delivered an address by a French reporter. He described the French affair in Vietnam years ago.

I.F. Stone defended the Cuban government. His talk was oriented toward history particularly the early 1800s in Europe and the Holy Alliance. He denounced America's activities in Vietnam.

Rev. Richard Morford was in the audience as was Mary Dougherty. Town Hall was full. Applause was abundant. There were a great many young people there.

Time 8:15 PM.

The speakers were the following:

FRED HINKLE - Chairman
I. F. STONE
SIDNEY STEINBAUM
DONALD DUNCAN

Town Hall was filled to capacity. Among those persons seen were the following:

(U) ARTHUR KNIGHT
LEON KUHLE
MIRIAM FRIEDLANDER
ISABELLE MANUS
MARION KNIGHT
MAURY CAKARS
SARAH PLOTKIN
RUTH DANIELS
CLARA DE MEHI

DONALD DUNCAN spoke of his training in guerilla warfare in Viet Nam. He stated that the U.S. should negotiate with the Viet Cong and condemned the war in Viet Nam.

DONALD DUNCAN further stated that those present should seek other means of protests by voting for candidates who are for peace. According to him demonstrations, picketing, etc. have done nothing to end the war in Viet Nam.

DONALD DUNCAN further stated that he would like to see the U.S. sit down and talk to people rather than governments and called for an end to the war in Viet Nam now.

All of the other speakers also condemned the war and called for its end.

POLITICAL COMMITTEE STATEMENT ON THE KIRK-KAYE SPLIT

Since its formation a number of years ago, the Kirk-Kaye group has been free to present its views to the ranks of the Socialist Workers Party in accordance with all the democratic rights traditionally granted to minorities under our Leninist organizational principles. As time went by, however, the group became less and less willing to abide by those principles. Then, on April 4, 1966, it made formal its split from the party which, to a large extent, had already been carried out in practice.

Deserters involved in the split include twenty-two former members of the Seattle branch and three former members-at-large in Connecticut. A few of them had been in the party since the Thirties. These latter defections reflect the extreme demoralization experienced by some within our ranks under pressures generated by the prolonged period of objective adversity the party has undergone.

In addition to its special ideas, the Kirk-Kaye group shares the characteristics typical of various minority formations that have appeared within the party in recent times. Each of these groupings tended to come forward with a gimmick guaranteed to work miracles for the party despite adverse objective conditions. In every case these minority viewpoints have been democratically discussed within the party and then rejected by an overwhelming majority of the membership.

Without exception, minorities of the Kirk-Kaye type have reacted to the rejection of their views by predicting disaster for the party. New developments, which contravened rather than confirmed their views, have been seized upon as a pretext for reintroducing their past notions. Old arguments have been repeatedly rehashed and demands for "new" discussion raised on the specious ground that the party is committing "new" errors. Behind all this has lain an obsessive desire to overturn the party's program and principles and a tendency, born of ingrown factional blindness, to look upon the party as a political prison.

As usually happens in such cases, those who nurse basic political differences with the party also tend to develop an urge to throw off the normal restrictions imposed upon them by the party's organizational concepts. Out of their frustration the diverse minorities evolved a common front on one special point: their opposition to the principle of majority rule. This resulted in brazen claims that an organized minority has the unconditional right to determine its own conduct inside the party, along with contentions that the majority has no right to require a minority to carry out official party policy.

Enforcement of the basic democratic principle of majority rule has been portrayed as a violation of minority rights. Refusal to let minorities turn the party into a perpetual talk shop has met with charges that there is not adequate discussion, that there is no democratic procedure for correcting party policy. When called to order for indiscipline and disloyalty, an outcry has arisen about bureaucratic persecution. The party leadership has been accused of trying to solve political questions by organizational measures. Statements and insinuations have been heard that organized minorities are no longer tolerated in the party and that party democracy is being undermined by a bureaucratic and apolitical leadership.

These slanderous and unfounded charges have been intended to divert attention from the realities of the internal party situation. Behind a smokescreen of double-talk, minorities have actually attempted to set themselves up as a party within the party, with their own program, and their own discipline. More accurately, they have tended to degenerate into unprincipled cliques bound together by personal associations. As such, they find the normal restrictions imposed by the party's program and principles increasingly intolerable. They exhibit a strong urge to break loose from all party restraint.

If the party did not stand firm, if it conceded to the demands for special license to organized minorities, it would negate the Leninist concept of a disciplined party composed of loyal members. Organizationally, the party would become converted into an all-inclusive federation of autonomous factions. Politically, it would be rendered impotent by perpetual internal warfare.

The party met this latest challenge to its Leninist concepts by adopting, after a democratic internal discussion, its 1965 convention resolution on "The Organizational Character of the SWP." That resolution reaffirmed our basic concepts of democratic centralism, restating them in face of the current specific challenge.

As the resolution states, our movement aims to train its cadres in the irreconcilable spirit of a combat party. That aim requires firmness in political line, unity in action, disciplined conduct in all internal party affairs and unconditional loyalty to the party. These are indispensable requirements for a party that aspires to lead the workers to victory in a struggle for political power. To go up against the ruling class in the United States, it is imperative that we approach our revolutionary tasks as one party with one program.

Our democratic-centralist norms enable the party to shape such a course in a free and democratic internal atmosphere. All individuals and tendencies have a full chance to contribute to the development of the party and to the shaping of its leading cadres. Minority views may be presented in internal discussion at the proper time and in an appropriate manner as determined by the party. Once a decision has been made on disputed issues a minority may retain its views but must subordinate itself in action to the majority. Between conventions authority becomes centralized and the party confronts the outside world with a single policy, that of the majority. In that way the party maintains its role as a revolutionary vanguard. Its character as a combat organization is safeguarded. Unity in action is preserved. Firmness of political line is assured and the party is enabled to maintain its principles unadulterated.

As a brief sketch of the Kirk-Kaye group's history will show, it had long been evolving toward its break with these well-established organizational principles which have guided our work for more than three decades. The break resulted from deep-going opposition to party theory, program and practice on a series of questions. As against the party's views, the group put forward its own particular line stemming from an incorrect theory about the Negro struggle which Kirk first began to expound some fifteen years ago.

Kirk maintains it is a fundamental error for the party to advocate self-determination for American Negroes and to recognize progressive features in black nationalism. He calls this a separatist line and an adaptation to the Communist Party's now abandoned black-nation program. Kirk mechanically equates self-determination as a people with separatism, which he excludes as a Negro right, and then extends the fallacy by identifying separatism and black nationalism as one and the same thing. From these false premises he comes to the fallacious conclusion that black nationalism is reactionary. He then indicts the party for alleged capitulation to ultra-black nationalism which, in his terms, means that the party is anti-integrationist. If this strange logic seems hard to grasp, it is no more fantastic than the gyrations through which the would-be theoretician projects his own line for the Negro struggle.

According to Kirk, a battle for revolutionary integration will soon get under way in the South. This impending revolutionary uprising will break out before the rest of the country has reached a comparable stage of radicalization. The Southern movement will undertake to overthrow what Kirk terms the fascist-type state regimes in that region. Johnson, who in some unexplained manner has introduced Bonapartist rule over the country, will seek to crush the impending Southern revolution. Therefore, we are told, the party must call forth a movement outside the South to stay Johnson's hand. It must also launch a campaign to encourage comrades of all ages to go to Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia. (Provided, it would seem, that they are not involved in a national mobilization to support Dick Gregory if he runs for mayor of Chicago, as Kirk demanded at the recent plenum of the National Committee.)

Kirk's line on the Negro question, which would have the party rushing simultaneously in all directions, has long been discussed in our ranks. As far back as the 1957 party convention it was put forward in resolution form, thoroughly discussed and overwhelmingly rejected. During the next six years of almost continuous internal party discussion of the Negro question, Kirk's contributions were, of course, made fully available to the membership along with those of other participants. At the 1963 party convention, he again came forward with his own resolution on the Negro question. As in 1957, his line was overwhelmingly rejected by the convention. This was repeated at the 1965 party convention when he once more introduced his views within the framework of a general political resolution.

Despite all this, the Kirk-Kaye group now allege that none of their documents on the Negro question were discussed objectively. That, too, is typical Kirkian logic. Rejection of his revelations is considered tantamount to refusal to discuss them objectively and conclusive proof that the party is bankrupt in both theory and practice.

By 1963 the Kirk-Kaye group also began to attack party policy on the Chinese question. Their tactics on this subject had the earmarks of an unprincipled maneuver to build a bloc with the Swabeck-Boulton group. Whatever their motivation, Kirk and company declared untenable the Trotskyist program of political revolution against the Maoist bureaucracy in China. They upbraided the party for defining the Mao regime as a Stalinist-type formation. At the same time they began to echo the Swabeck-Boulton demand that the party seek a fusion with the Maoist group in this country known as the Progressive Labor party.

This latter demand reflects their adamant refusal to accept the 1959 party conclusion that the possibilities of regroupment, which had opened after the Twentieth Congress of the Soviet Communist Party in 1956, had been exhausted. That was the Congress at which Khrushchev denounced Stalin and precipitated an internal crisis in the Stalinist world movement. We intervened in the deepening crisis of Stalinism and sought to win over receptive ex-Stalinists to our movement. When this phase ended, we turned to other fields.

Rejecting the 1959 convention decision, the Kirk-Kaye group persistently maneuvered to continue the regroupment tactic in the party's Seattle branch which they controlled. As time went by they took an increasingly soft approach to political opponents of the party. In fact, they seemed to become politically friendly toward every other radical grouping to the degree that they developed political hostility toward their own comrades of the party majority.

Then at the 1965 party convention Kirk-Kaye introduced an omnibus resolution containing sweeping differentiations from the party's program and principles. In effect, they called upon the party to dissolve itself and enter upon a quest to form what they called "a new, fused and regrouped revolutionary party." As in all previous cases, their whole line was overwhelmingly rejected by the party convention.

Not long thereafter the group entered the final political phase of their split from the party by centering their attack on party policy in the antiwar movement. They denounced our antiwar program as reformist. Party comrades were accused of acting as right wingers in an alliance with "established peace addicts." Our effective fight against the false policies and unprincipled maneuvers of the Stalinists and other political opponents was branded sectarian disruption of the antiwar united front. Meanwhile the ultraleftist adventurers of Progressive Labor, along with renegades from our party, were praised for allegedly raising the political level of the antiwar movement. Our young comrades, who carry the main burden of the antiwar campaign, were denounced as sectarians, reformists, conservatives and any other harsh thing that Kirk-Kaye happened to think of.

As against present party tactics, Kirk-Kaye advanced an impatient, presently unrealizable, demand that the antiwar and civil-rights movements be combined forthwith in one united struggle. They denigrated and dismissed as pacifist the present stage of the struggle against war, through which increasing numbers of young people are becoming radicalized around the demand to Bring the Troops Home Now. In its place they projected fantasies about creating a "revolutionary" antiwar movement which would call upon the National Liberation Front in Vietnam to drive the GIs into the China Sea. Toward that end they acted in close political-organizational collusion with whatever screwballs were around.

The appalling results of the Kirk-Kaye course in Seattle have been eloquently summarized by loyal comrades present when the group split from the party. Wherever they probed, the loyal comrades found evidence that the whole line of the Kirk-Kaye group leads to abstention from the living struggle at its present stage of development; that the group is characterized by pessimism and defeatism about the prospects for mass radicalization in the United States; that their verbal flights into super-militancy serve to cover a policy of non-participation in the actual processes of mass action. This, it was found, has caused them to fall more and more out of touch with political realities and to degenerate into a small, sectarian formation with many characteristics of a political cult.

Such, in general, are the political features of the Kirk-Kaye group, who have split from the party which they denounce as bankrupt in program and principles, and who have set themselves up in Seattle as the "center of revolutionary-socialism" in the United States.

In their organizational evolution, the ex-comrades of the Kirk-Kaye group have abandoned Leninist principles. While still in the party they sought unconditional autonomy as an organized minority in opposition to the basic democratic principle of majority rule. On one and another pretext, they injected their political line into the public activity of the Seattle branch. In the 1964 election campaign they even went so far as to create a changed public organizational form, a so-called Freedom Socialist Party. This was done on the pretense that a non-SWP designation was needed in order to mobilize the necessary support to get the candidates on the election ballot. Actually it was a ruse designed to implement the Kirk-Kaye concept of a "new, fused and regrouped revolutionary party."

Contacts were first recruited into the Kirk-Kaye group and then, formally, brought into the party after they had been lined up on the basis of the group's own program and methods. Before they entered the party, the recruits had already been indoctrinated against its program, convention decisions and organizational principles. When the group split, a loyal comrade tried to impress upon one of them the seriousness of leaving the party. She replied that she would never have joined the party if it hadn't been for the Kirk-Kaye tendency. In fact she had joined the tendency and not the party.

During internal party discussions Kirk-Kaye put their line to vote in the Seattle branch at the start of the discussion, aiming to commit the party branch in advance to their views and to close everybody's minds to any contrary opinions. Kirk-Kaye documents were submitted for party discussion in the name of the branch, an undemocratic action that is contrary to party discussion procedure. This was done behind a smokescreen of slanderous charges that the party has become "undemocratic" and "bureaucratic." It was a case of factionalism gone mad.

This was evident in all spheres of party work. Even before the Kirk-Kaye split, the Seattle branch had made only token distribution of our press. There were few individual subscriptions in the area, bundle orders were very small, and payment for what was ordered lagged far behind. The branch did not take out a single subscription to World Outlook. Little general literature was ordered and not all of that was paid for. The small branch pledge to the party's monthly sustaining fund had fallen more than a year in arrears. No dues payments whatever had been sent to the party's national office since last year. These defaults signified that the branch had developed a deadly internal sickness, causing it to degenerate.

Still another violation of loyal organizational conduct was committed by Kirk-Kaye in their attack on party policy in the antiwar movement. Kirk opened the attack last December through a letter to the Political Committee. Copies of the letter were immediately distributed from Seattle to a select list of people inside and outside the party. A member of the group went to a neighboring branch of a co-thinkers' organization where he gave copies of the letter to some individuals. Carried out behind the backs of the officially-elected leadership of that organization, this was a flat violation of party policy concerning fraternal relations with co-thinkers. As far back as 1953 such practices had been specifically denounced by the party, and the reasons for the party's views on the subject were explained at the time in a speech by Comrade Cannon on "Internationalism and the SWP."

The co-thinkers' national leadership sent our party a formal protest, taking the strongest exception to the way in which the Kirk letter had been injected into their organization. Attention was called to the co-thinkers' right to decide for themselves what material is to be circulated in their movement and when it will be circulated. Our party was asked to take appropriate action to see that such a violation of their rights does not happen again.

Kirk was notified by the PC that the whole matter would be placed on the agenda of the February, 1966, plenum of the National Committee. At the plenum he was given full opportunity to explain why he had allowed his letter to be used in the manner described, and after listening to him the National Committee made its decision. Kirk was censured for his violation of party rules and procedures and warned that any repetition would lead to more drastic disciplinary action. If the plenum had done any less, it would have defaulted on its obligations to the party.

Even this mild disciplinary action was too much for the thoroughly disloyal Kirk-Kaye group. It soon became apparent, from evidence that chanced to fall into the hands of loyal comrades, that they had set out to organize the biggest possible split from the party. The decision was made at a Seattle caucus meeting, but the open break was delayed for tactical reasons. Through surreptitious letters and personal visits, in which false claims were made that the party was driving them away, efforts were made to broaden the split beyond the Kirk-Kaye group. While trying to keep loyal party comrades in the dark about their scheme, they made others, including the Progressive Labor Maoists, aware of the split perspective. In fact, Kirk-Kaye acted in collusion with such types in a parallel scheme to split the revolutionary-socialist youth movement and set up a rival youth organization. Finally, their real aims came out into the open when the group formally resigned from what they termed "the stifling, narrow and mechanistic confines of the party."

These splitters, who long ago ceased to be loyal party builders, can no longer be regarded as part of our movement. They are free to apply their program and methods as they choose, but not in the name of the Socialist Workers Party. Kirk and company are now functioning as avowed opponents of our movement and they are to be treated as such by all party members. We will grant them no territorial franchises, in Seattle or elsewhere.

The PC has already assigned loyal reinforcements to rebuild the party's Seattle branch. For the first time in a long while, political work there will be conducted in accord with the party's program and organizational principles. The way is again open to create a viable revolutionary-socialist movement in the Pacific Northwest. We may be confident that progress toward that end will now be made, just as our movement is making progress elsewhere in the country.

Written May 21, 1966

Re Militant Labor Forum, 873 B'way, NY, NY of May 20, 1966, - scheduled for 8:30 P.M. - with a Chairman, "Bob" - a White man + dark hair, some what fat in face & body, wearing glasses, and Speakers:

TRUMAN NELSON - A graying White man, with plenty hair, who wore glasses and at times held them in his hand; his build is somewhat stocky; he has a fairly big face, i.e. forehead & cheekbones well developed, but somewhat thinning cheeks.

(Remark: The two scheduled women, Negresses, arrived a good while later, during which interlude TRUMAN NELSON spoke.)

1. MRS. SADIE CHANCY - black faced, shorter and of broader build than her companion, aunt of [redacted] the jailed, convicted defendant of a Harlem homicide trial.

2. MRS. MILDRED THOMAS - also black faced, the taller, thinner of the two, and mother of [redacted] another similarly convicted defendant, also imprisoned. Neither woman wore glasses.

Both relatives believed in the innocence of their boys, protesting that their youths refused to take pleas of guilty - even with the offer of lighter sentences - 1-5 years with a possible term of three years in actuality.

Topic: The Torture of Mothers

The Chairman - called the standees at the Forum to take seats, remarking that meetings would start sooner in the future, he also welcomed all to the Militant Labor Forum, he mentioned MR. NELSON as author of a book, the subject of the evening's talk, the Torture of Mothers. (The paperback book is published by Garrison Press, 401 Broadway, N.Y., N.Y., but printed in Massachusetts.)

TRUMAN NELSON, speaker, presented the "Fruit Riot Case" at some length - with rolling oranges, boys accused of stealing fruit, beating by police, the loss of one eye by a salesman who sold nylons and other items in the neighborhood. He mentioned that he was a "revolutionist"; that this civilization, in his view, "cannot be and is not worth reforming, but that something has to be done about it pretty soon." He likened their case, the homicide "murder" charge incident as more dramatic than the Scottsboro Case. He quoted from a Supreme Court Justice statement, attributed by him to Judge "HAINEY" (? not spelled) in effect that whites do not have to extend to Negroes any rights. He considered that more violence is discussed at the Pentagon than would happen for years in Harlem. The New York Times had popularized news that a Harlem gang aimed at harming & killing whites at the time of the trial. In his view, the N.Y. Times, in giving out news was more official than RUSK.

MRS. SADIE CHANCY - told that on the day of the murder, April 29, she had talked on the phone with her nephew, the defendant, when he had been at a neighbor's home, the time being between quarter to four and 10 to four. Afterwards according to the case details, "the time" (of murder) was changed to 5 P.M. Both women mentioned that the state appointed lawyers urged the defendants (both boys) to plead guilty which both did not want to do, both held they were innocent. She went to NAACP, also the Legal Aid Society, & got no satisfaction. She hopes for better results with CONRAD LYNN, and TRUMAN NELSON. She received no help from her pastor either. (No denomination had been named.) (MRS. THOMAS mentioned no church at all.)

NY 100-97078

MRS. MILDRED THOMAS - also claimed her boy knew nothing about details of the case, he also said he was innocent. Her boy (WALTER THOMAS) had bought pigeons which he tended on the roof; hoping to raise pigeons. She said he was home at the time the murder was committed.

Both women said that their boys' spirits were high in jail regarding themselves blameless.

The Chairman that HARRY RING would have some announcements.

1. Concerned a collection of money from the audience to aid the defendants. [ ] collected in one basket, as did another young woman. (Before the meeting's end, the sum of $61.- was told.)

2. Next Forum - would be a "Memorial Service" for LEO BERNARD, a Socialist Workers Party member of Detroit, one of three shot by an anti-Communist, but L.B. was killed, the other two hospitalized and in serious condition.

2 - Speakers expected on this program, as read from the printed notice (of Literature Item 1 - 5/20/66) - BETTY SHABAZZ, widow of MALCOLM X; MURRAY KEMPTON, writer for a column, JAMES ARONSON, ELIZABETH BARNES, DAVE DELLINGER, FARRELL DOBBS, CLARK FOREMAN, & A.J. MUSTE, plus spokesman for the Du Bois Clubs, Students Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, Students for Democratic Society, Puerto Rican Pro-Independence Movement.

3. Monday's Rally (May 23) - at Manhattan Center (34 St. - 8 Ave.), with A.J. MUSTE, I.F. STONE & ISAAC DEUTSCHER - to hear "The Truth that Nobody Has Heard About Saigon".

A Question - Comment Period followed.

NY 100-97078

Commentator No. 1 - A quite plump, dark haired woman of white race said she could sympathize with the two mothers, because she has a similar situation at Great Neck, Nassau Co. of Long Island, with her son involved in something he didn't do; plus the costs and troubles associated with getting a lawyer.

No. 2 - A Questioner - Are any attempts being expected to be made? Answer: Yes at the Court of Appeals, after the many pages of testimony can be typewritten.

No. 3 - A short thin white woman, with a boyish haircut identified herself. "I work with the Town Hall Group concerned in the case; she urged that anyone wishing news of developments could provide name and address, phoned in at the office of CONRAD LYNN. She handed out a pad and fountain pen for names and address to be written thereto, to be on their mailing list. Some gave the desired information for this.

No. 4 - CLIFTON DE BERRY - asked what had been done to get publicity in the case (Fruit Riot), to keep it before people, to keep it up. Ans: The aim is to tell people about it, from street corners, etc.

Seen Present - [redacted] Unruly Hair his short stocky friend, [redacted] Mr. PARAPLEGIC, Mr. White Hair No. 2 (with fuller face than No. 1 - who was absent a long time), Miss 1954, [redacted] (Very late entry: [redacted] took several pictures, with a camera having a long, wide lens extension, the pictures taking concerned the speakers, the two Negresses and TRUMAN NELSON. Possibly they may appear in a later issue of the Militant. [redacted] made a very brief appearance.)

Re: Militant Labor Forum, 873 B'way, N.Y., N.Y. of May 13, 1966, started and scheduled about 8:30 P.M., with "A New Policy of Starting on Time", with a Chairman - A young, short woman, and a tape recorder [redacted] attending it) and a speaker - JUDY WHITE - of the Newsletter (of Cambridge Mass) - described as a short young white woman, (about 5'tall, or less), with dark hair, medium build, not fat, not thin & moderately full face, wearing dark rimmed glasses.

Topic - Impact of the Anti Vietnam War Campaign.

JUDY WHITE, speaker, read a prepared statement. In this she noted that there had been no similar reaction against U.S.A. Government action, compared to the present anti Vietnam Campaign, in World Wars I & II - because in these two wars the American people felt they were overcoming the oppressors. The U.S. War against Mexico in the 1950's did mark some reaction; this was over 100 years ago.

The pessimistic view by some pacifists was treated at some length; she talked with a Boston professor who seemed very disillusioned at the prospects for their cause. They demonstrated (on a certain named date), but it did not prevent the war from escalating. These people saw mostly the enormity of the task before them.

The other side, the growth of the anti war drive, in her view, was given in figures of 25,000 about a year ago to 200,000 as of the present; also about 25 Chapters a year ago to 500 now, being first only in "the big cities," - extending to small towns, and naming one in Montana. (Pronunciation of M. sounded like Mont-ayn-a, ay like in hay.)

News of demonstrations in U.S.A. - in her view - gave impetus for like occurrences among the Buddhist Monks in Saigon and in other foreign countries; she named some in Europe.

NY 100-97078

She likened the Korean effort - to bring the troops home at the close of this conflict, and noted that 100,000 troops demonstrated in three days, after they knew that their job had been done. Some of the troops booed their officers. EISENHOWER, in part, won his election on his platform of settling the conflict by negotiation.

She also mentioned that some Congressmen spoke for peace, and that much could be done, by telling these and others that they would not get votes if they did not vote for ending the war.

She resented that the present anti war enthusiasts were called, Beatniks, cowards and traitors, when in her mind they were acting according to their conscience.

The "Prisoner of War" (P.O.W.) situation in the Korean War got some lengthy treatment based on a book, "No Other War" (?) noting that 21 P.O.W.'s did not want to return to U.S.A.; that none wanted or did escape to their own lines, that an estimated 1 of 3 prisoners did enter into some form of collaboration with the Communists; that no torture was proved, and no brainwashing; that one American Officer was heard in an enemy broadcast three days after capture.

She read of a letter sent by a Vietnam War G.I. who shot at a woman who seized a machine gun when her husband was shot; then he returned fire, killing her and shooting her baby - which made him sick. The letter was to his mother. Other such letters sent home to relatives would aid their cause for stopping the war.

In the main so far, students and intellectuals were the principal groups interested in anti-war. The workers and farmers so far did not respond, but they might as their sons would become involved in draft or as casualties.

In closing, the speaker, JUDY WHITE- hoped for peace and the end of the war.

NY 100-97078

During an Intermission the Chairman announced:

1. For May 23, at 8 P.M., "Ten days from today,"
A Rally at Manhattan Center, 34 St & 8th Ave., "The Truth that Nobody has heard about Saigon - with:

- 1<sup>1</sup>. A.J. MUSTE - Demonstrator in Saigon
- 2<sup>1</sup>. I.F. STONE - of I.F. Stone's Weekly
- 3<sup>1</sup>. ISAAC DEUTSCHER - Writer.

(Auspices: 5 Ave Vietnam Peace Parade Committee,
5 Beekman St., Room 922.) from Literature Item 5/13/66 - 9.2)
The Rally will prepare the next major united action against the War.

2. For May 20 - The Next Forum: The Torture of Mothers - The story of the Framed-Up "Harlem Six" - with:

- 1- TRUMAN NELSON - Author of The Torture of Mothers"
- 2- Mrs. SADIE CHANCY - Aunt of [redacted] (in prison)
- 3- Mrs. MILDRED THOMAS - Mother of [redacted] (in prison).

Question - Comment Period -

One asked what did the speaker (J.W.) mean or have in mind when she recommended that "Direct Action be taken regarding the Anti-War Campaign - did this mean more disruptive action? She thought such action would be premature, what did he suggest? This commentator thought that by giving American demonstrations world wide news coverage, weren't these people playing against their cause, inasmuch as the enemy country populations might get the idea to demonstrate against their governments also.

HARRY RING - rose to say that the supposition that Union leaders were not voicing opposition to the Vietnam War was wrong - giving numerous examples.

b6
b7C

NY 100-97078

DICK GARZA, noted that Union leaders might act according to their economic interests even if Wartime-anti-strike pledges were taken; he gave some examples.

FRANK - thought that war brought work to some, and money - in which case, they would not oppose war.

HARRY RING - countered this point that inflation would take a major slice of their earnings, with the bosses retaining the major share.

A Commentator in the rear said he read the Congressional Record and the polls, and that 80% of those interviewed opposed the Viet War.

Among those seen Present:

Mr. Paraplegic, [redacted]
Unruly Hair, his short stocky friend, a short white haired lady, [redacted] (seemed tired & also disinterested - by reading during the talk; and at one time supporting his head with his hands & elbows on his knees, & eyes closed); Miss 1954; [redacted] only one short stocky Negro.

Estimated Attendance - about 45 - 50.

A Young Woman discarded a large batch of literature item 9.1 - seemingly 9.2 succeeded it having three names instead of two - DEUTSCHER's name was added.

Remark Further: From Bulletin Board and Literature - Item 10 - 5/13/66 - Regarding Mon May 30 Black Memorial Day March & Rally - From 8 Ave & 110 St, at Noon to 8 Ave 135 St, thence to 7th Ave., thence to 125 St - Mass Protest Rally 3:30 P.M. to 10 P.M.) - This was not announced, but the literature item was available.

SPEAKERS COMMENTS (not in order of speaking)

1. ISAAC DEUTSCHER: He addressed the audience as "Ladies, Gentlemen, Comrades." He said he was speaking "as a Marxist." (Note: His views are those of a Trotskyist and his line was that of the SWP's for the most part. In fact, GEORGE NOVACK later referred to DEUTSCHER's talk as "pure distilled Trotskyism.") He stated as a "fact" that Russia and China have given no aid to North Viet Nam. DEUTSCHER also stated he believes that if the United States attacks China and the Soviet Union does not come to China's aid, the Russian masses will overthrow its bureaucratic leadership for not aiding China. With reference to Viet Nam, he said it was a "great spectacle," meaning in his opinion, that a tiny nation like Viet Nam was beating an empire like the United States. DEUTSCHER said he told his Communist and Socialist friends in Europe that "America speaks with two voices" re Viet Nam (one is the "voice" of the protest movement; the other is that of the U. S. Government). He told the audience to "see yourselves" (in the anti-war movement) "in your" revolutionary "historical perspective. He further urged the audience to keep up the protest and said that European countries support the U. S. protest against the war in Viet Nam. Via the use of innuendo, DEUTSCHER criticized both China and the Soviet Union for not coming to the aid of Viet Nam. DEUTSCHER was going to tell the audience the "weaknesses" of the anti-war movement, but there was not enough time. Therefore, he will speak again in New York City on September 9 and will give the "weaknesses" of the anti-war movement. DEUTSCHER also mentioned that he has spoken at Italian Communist Party meetings.

2. A. J. MUSTE: This is the most militant speech the writer has ever heard MUSTE give. He stated that perhaps a "turn" would take place in which the present administration would be overthrown via the anti-war movement. He also said re Viet Nam that "South Vietnamese will have to sit down and negotiate with South Vietnamese and then negotiate with the Viet Cong." MUSTE said the people of Saigon were not against the visit by himself and other pacifists.

3. I. F. STONE: He stated that the United States will not leave Viet Nam, although it knows it (United States) has lost, because of loss of "face." STONE also said that "regardless of the ideology - whether Socialism, Communism or Capitalism - man will kill his fellow man." STONE did not blame the United States for the war in Viet Nam as all the other speakers did. (STONE also made pro-NLF comments). Rather, he blamed the United States "military and intelligence" agencies for making "wrong" estimates about Viet Nam.

4. SANFORD GOTTLLIEB: SDS: His speech was a straight Marxist line: "Just as the workers must control the means of production and the masses must have power and control the political structure, so too, the students must control their universities." (Note: GOTTLLIEB is a student at CCNY and helped organize the sit-in there.)

5. JOE KEARNS: Student Peace Union: He announced the death of ADDISON WILKINS, an SPU worker, found shot to death in Richmond, Virginia. He asked the audience to write to the Justice Department, saying WILKINS' civil rights were violated, so that there will be an investigation of his death. KEARNS read the last letter he had received from WILKINS, written just before his death.

NY 100-156835

6. DAVE DELLINGER: Liberation Magazine: He announced August 6-9 as the next Days of Protest and called for a "united front" in building these Days. He said to turn Hiroshima and Nagasaki Days into anti (Viet Nam)-war days. He also announced that there will be a "Planning Conference" early in June, made up of representatives from church groups, women's groups, etc., plus the Parade Committee, to make further plans for anti-war activities. DELLINGER also asked the audience to write in suggestions for activities to the Parade Committee.

7. NORMA BECKER: Cocrdinator of Parade Committee
(with DELLINGER)
She gave the "collection pitch" to raise money for the August 6-9 Days of Protest.

8. OTTO NATHAN, Chairman: He introduced speakers. His comments were aimed at "United States imperialism" and against capitalism and he advocated U. S. withdrawal from Viet Nam, as did all the speakers.

The SWP distributed 2,000 Militants outside the rally plus a leaflet re May 27 Memorial Meeting for LEO BERNARD.

Telegrams were sent to the May 23rd rally by BERTRAND RUSSELL and by anti-war (Viet Nam) committees in Australia and New Zealand supporting the August 6-9 Days of Protest. (It was mentioned that there are 80 Viet Nam committees in Australia and New Zealand.)

"June 24, 1966
Wash., D.C." (C)

"A Steering Committee meeting of the Women Strike for Peace was held at the home of [redacted]

(U) [redacted] on 6/23/66. The meeting scheduled to start at 8:30 P.M. began at approximately 9P.M. [redacted]

[redacted] both acted as chairmen. There were 13 present. (C)

(U) "Some of the topics discussed were the following: (C)

"Summer activities of WSP: Enthusiastic mention was made of Eric Severeid's program on CBS, on Vietnam. He said what (U) WSP has been saying all along. [redacted] distributed post cards to be mailed to him asking that he repeat the program. (C)

(U) "After this a suggestion was given that it would be good to have riots in ghetto areas such as Watts, so that troops would have to come home. This comment was ignored by the group. (C)

(U) "Then [redacted] reported that material will continue to be distributed at the Arena Theatre during the run of the play, 'Oh, What a Lovely War', and also at the Washington Theatre Club, for the run of 'Spread Eagle'. (C)

"After this, it was suggested that telegrams will be sent to our Governor who will be at the meeting of Governors, July 6, 1966, at the Century Plaza Hotel, Avenue of the States, Los Angeles. All groups around the country will be contacted to do, (U) the same. Telegrams to be sent by all of us as individuals, and from the Women Strike for Peace, Washington, Women Strike for Peace, Bethesda, Garrett Park, etc. (separate telegrams), saying withdraw troops from Viet Nam. (C)

(U) "Following this, we were told about petitions we will receive, a project of 'Concerned Americans', an organization in Calif., asking to have our troops withdrawn from Viet Nam. (C)

"Later there was a lengthy discussion on the burned children in Viet Nam. Women Senators are to be sent this material, and then visited on this, also [redacted] will give a copy to Herman Will and suggest it to him as a topic for a program. (C) We want the children brought here, as when people see them, this will be a good opportunity for fund raising. [redacted] will be

(U) in N.Y.C. next week and will meet with [redacted] (ph) on this. (C)

"Then [redacted] reported on a questionnaire sent out to the whole mailing list (1100 names in this area), but questionnaire did not go to the steering committee members or to organizations, so about 900 were sent. The questionnaire was on activities that people would be interested in; i.e., helping on mailings, half day's work in the office, attend meetings to hear programs. A meeting to be set up to hear I. F. Stone's report; expected attendance 25, (U) possible place, Ethical Society Building. [redacted] to be contacted on this. 30 responses received on questionnaire in two weeks time. (C)

"I. F. Stone's Weekly" July 25, 1966 contained an article on page 1 captioned "On the question of War Crimes in Vietnam". The first paragraph of this article read as follows:

"Nothing could be more barbaric than the reactions in Washington to the possibility that U. S. aviators may be put on trial as war criminals in Hanoi. It will not add to our country's reputation when Senators as senior as Russell of Georgia threaten to "make a desert" of North Vietnam, and Senators as liberal as Aiken of Vermont speak of its "complete destruction." A nation that napalms villages in the South on the mere suspicion that they may harbor rebels and bombs the North without a declaration of war is hardly a model of adherence to international law. Something of the terror that Washington officialdom feels for Lyndon Johnson is unwittingly reflected in the appeals pouring out of the capital to Hanoi not to provoke him - we almost typed it Him - by trying the fliers."

DEATH OF TWO PEACEMAKERS

Ivan Johnson and Chris Locke were associated with the Catholic Worker movement and were rooming together in Rochester where they attended the University. On Saturday night, March 4, Ivan and Chris were attacked outside a tavern in Rochester frequented by college students. Chris was recognized as an opponent of the war in Vietnam and attacked by two young men. Ivan was beaten and died of a brain hemorrhage.

Leo Bernard was killed in Detroit on May 16. He was going to Wayne State University, was active in the peace movement, and working at an office of the Young Socialist Alliance. A 40 year old cab driver, who had wanted to go to the Republic of S. Africa to fight communism, entered the office, lined the three young men up against the wall and shot them. Leo died and the other two are in serious condition.

"Felix Greene of Palo Alto, California, cousin of British novelist Graham Greene, is an English citizen who has lived in the United States since 1940. He is recognized as a leftist and sympathizer with communist causes. He is not a registered agent of the People's Republic of China, but anyone who has seen his film, 'China,' or read his books may determine the extent of his leftist devotion. A summary of his activities and background appears in the Congressional Record, Eighty-Ninth Congress, Second Session."

Women Strike for Peace

A publicly identified pacifist organization.

The first source advised that a meeting featuring Felix Greene was held at Gaston Hall, Georgetown University, Washington, D.C., at 8 p.m., November 13, 1966. Approximately seven hundred people were in attendance.

During his remarks, Greene stated some of the people in China holding important positions were not in agreement with revolutionary doctrines, and have been removed from their positions, not killed, just removed. From what he saw of the Red Guard, he thought they were something like Boy Scouts. Greene said North Vietnam does not have the healthy economy of China and that we should have let the people of Vietnam have elections as promised. The only reason we are in Vietnam and other countries is economic. Greene also stated the have-not nations of the world resent the fact the United States, with only a small percentage of the world's population, produces most of the world's wealth and they are in revolt.

Senator Ernest Gruening of Alaska asked to speak from the floor. He made the point that the United States has broken numerous agreements and stated we should get out of Vietnam.

Garden Rally by SANE Dec. 8 to Hit Viet War

By DOUGLASS ARCHER

A RALLY to End the Vietnam war has been called at Madison Square Garden, Thursday, December 8, 7:00 p.m. by the N.Y. Committee of the National Council for a Sane Nuclear Policy. In a statement released last week, N.Y. Sane called upon the Administration to initiate a permanent cease fire in Vietnam and negotiations with the National Liberation Front.

In their statement N.Y. SANE declared: "The cruel Vietnam war is destroying a country, a society and a people. It is bringing thousands of casualties and deaths, destroying human rights in Vietnam, slowing the drive for such rights at home, stalling the war on poverty, bringing inflation and new taxes, making a mockery of 'the Great Society' and threatening nuclear holocaust. In the name of human decency we call for U.S. steps to end the Vietnam war now! To this end we demand an end to all bombings now, a cease fire now begun by the U.S. This must include a halt to the troop buildup. Instead of a short holiday truce, the ceasefire must be made permanent, agreement now to negotiate with the NLF (Vietcong) as a major party to the conflict. Plans must be worked out for the international supervision of the permanent truce and for self determination in South Vietnam. Commit ourselves now to a time table for withdrawal of all foreign troops."

Spokesman for N.Y. SANE said, last week, the partial list of speakers will include Sen. Vance Hartke (D-Ind); Floyd B. McKissick, National Director, CORE; I. F. Stone, journalist; Dr. Eric Fromm; Dr. Benjamin Spock; Norman Thomas and Jules Feiffer. Tickets for the rally are from $1.00 to $7.00 and can be purchased from N.Y. SANE, 124 E. 40th St. TN 7-6140.

SANE RALLY AT MADISON SQUARE GARDEN
20,000 IN NEW YORK ASK VIETNAM BOMBING HALT:

NEARLY 20,000 New Yorkers assembled at Madison Square Garden Dec. 8 to demand peace in Vietnam. The rally, commemorating Human Rights Day, was organized by the National Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy.

In a pledge for peace, the audience demanded of President Johnson that he "end the bombing now, call for a permanent cease-fire to follow the holiday truce, order American troops to halt aggressive action now, and agree to negotiate with the National Liberation Front . . ." (The NLF demands U.S. agreement to withdraw from Vietnam as a prior condition to talks.)

Speakers at the five-hour rally included Floyd McKissick of CORE; journalist I. F. Stone; Paul Booth, former SDS national secretary; Gunnar Myrdal, Swedish sociologist and cartoonist; Jules Feiffer.

The war in Vietnam seemed to be having an increasing effect on several of the speakers, whose tone, compared with earlier speeches, was generally sharper, more caustic and angry.

STONE SAID: "No government tells the truth. All governments are staffed by liars. But rarely has a government been as untrustworthy as the one we have now . . . What we need in Washington are computers who know how to blush . . . You have to be a crook with a law school degree to understand what these crooks are doing."

Apparently, locating his most powerful crooks in the Pentagon, Stone said that the U.S. "military blocks the peace." Calling for negotiations to end the conflict, Stone declared that if the U.S. "negotiated with the NLF the whole area would be under the creative influence of the United States in a few years."

Pete Seeger, the folksinger whose voice rarely shows anger, virtually shook with rage as he pointed to an American flag and shouted that "those bastards" have defiled the national emblem by conducting the war in Vietnam.

Joel Jacobson, speaking for the trade union division of SANE, discussed the awakening of trade union interest in ending the war. Over 5,000 unionists from several New York labor organizations were in the audience, he said.

McKISSICK, whose appearance at the rally indicated the moderate peace movement's desire for closer relations with the Negro freedom movement, said that peace forces should not underestimate the depth of opposition to the war in Negro communities. "Letters come in to us every day opposing the war, even from black soldiers in Vietnam," he said.

Speaking of government efforts to "train" black Americans who do not meet Selective Service standards, McKissick said: "They're training them to shoot down someone who never called them 'nigger.'"

Myrdal documented his thesis that the war was making the U.S. the most isolated country in the world.

Donald Keys, SANE's executive director, said that the "draft is providing the manpower reserve for unlimited intervention . . . The draft is involuntary servitude and it should be ended."

Grace Mora Newman, sister of Dennis Mora, one of the Ft. Hood Three, who are now imprisoned at Leavenworth, demanded that "we support our boys in Vietnam by bringing them home now."

The speakers denounced U.S. policy in the Vietnam war

BOOTH ASKED the audience: "Where do we have the moral authority to tell America not to send its sons to Vietnam unless we ourselves say, 'We won't go?' Are we as serious in opposing the war as LBJ is serious about escalating the war?" The war, he said, reveals "the bankruptcy of liberalism and conservatism." In this state of affairs, he continued, "it is crackpot realism to find the most attractive personality" to oppose a conservative Ronald Reagan in California. "It is time," he concluded, "to back our own new politics . . . to construct a new political movement." Felfer delivered a blistering satire of a hypothetical speech of President Johnson's. The rally was supported by about 40 anti-war and liberal political groups.

I. RESIDENCE AND EMPLOYMENT

The "I. F. STONE's Weekly" issue of March 6, 1967, reflects that STONE resides at 5618 Nebraska Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., and that he publishes "I. F. STONE's Weekly," a newsletter, from that address. This issue indicates that the newsletter is published every Monday except in August, the last week in December and the first week in January and biweekly during July at 5618 Nebraska Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C. The issue states that the newsletter is an independent weekly publication edited by I. F. STONE.

With reference to the subject's employment the records of The Credit Bureau, Inc., Washington, D. C., as of March 7, 1967, reflect that STONE is engaged in his own business operating under the trade style "I. F. STONE's Weekly" and that he has done this type of business since 1952. The Credit Bureau report states that he writes and publishes a newsletter and that it contains points of national interest taking place in the nation's capital; that it is a political newspaper covering current events in government. The newsletter sells at newsstands for 15 cents a copy or $5 per annum for subscriptions.

II. ANTI-VIETNAM ACTIVITY

On May 15, 1966, the subject was observed by a Special Agent of the FBI at the Sylvan Theater, Washington, D. C., Monument Grounds, Washington, D. C., at which time the "Voters' Peace Pledge Campaign" was in progress. STONE was a speaker at this affair. He was introduced as the most important journalist in America today. In his comments STONE stated that he had just returned from Vietnam and Cambodia. He stated that from the way he sees it, he is very sorry for every American boy who has had to go to Vietnam and fight in the jungle. He stated that everything in Cambodia is fine today and communism there is contained. He stated that the independent thinking about Vietnam is that "We won't be defeated, but we can't win." "We will have to deal with the National Liberation Front, the people in Vietnam want our soldiers to get out but they want our aid to stay."

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Regarding the above, the April-May 1966, newsletter, "The Washington WSPer," self-described as published by the Women Strike for Peace, states "Vote with your feet on May 15- Convention and March to climax Voters' Pledge Drive." It continues, "The Voters' Peace Pledge Campaign, a national effort to mobilize the widest possible opposition to the war in Vietnam, will be climaxed with a Convention and Voters' March on Washington, May 14 and 15th.

The "National Guardian" of May 21, 1966, page 4, and "The Worker" of May 22, 1966, contained announcements that the subject would be one of the speakers on the subject of "The Deteriorating U. S. Position in Saigon" on the evening of May 23, 1966, at the Manhattan Center, 34th and Eighth Avenue, New York, New York. This event was to be sponsored by the "Fifth Avenue Vietnam Peace Parade Committee."

The "National Guardian" is characterized in the appendix.

"The Worker" is an East Coast communist newspaper.

Subject was observed at the above described rally. He stated the United States will not leave Vietnam although it knows it (United States) has lost, because of loss of "face." STONE also said that "regardless of the ideology - whether Socialism, Communism or Capitalism - man will kill his fellow man." STONE did not blame the United States for the war in Vietnam, as all the other speakers did. He blamed the United States "military and intelligence agencies for making wrong estimates about the Vietnam situation." STONE in his talk made various pro National Liberation Front comments.

(WF T-4, 5/31/66)

"I. F. STONE's Weekly" of July 25, 1966, contained an article on page 1 captioned "On the question of War Crimes in Vietnam." The first paragraph of this article read as follows:

"Nothing could be more barbaric than the reactions in Washington to the possibility that U. S. aviators may be put on trial as war criminals in Hanoi. It will not add to our country's reputation when Senators as senior as RUSSELL of Georgia threaten to "make a desert" of North Vietnam, and Senators as liberal as AIKEN of Vermont speak of its "complete destruction." A nation that napalms villages in the South on the mere suspicion that they may harbor rebels and bombs the North without a declaration of war is hardly a model of adherence to international law. Something of the terror that Washington officialdom feels for LYNDON JOHNSON is unwittingly reflected in the appeals pouring out of the capital to Hanoi not to provoke him - we almost typed it Him - by trying the fliers."

On November 13, 1966, the subject was a speaker at a "FELIX GREENE Meeting on China, Vietnam and Ourselves" held at the residence of [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Bethesda, Maryland. FELIX GREENE arrived in Washington, D. C., on November 13, 1966, and was present at the affair held in his honor. Subject in his talk stated that he felt the recent elections held throughout the nation showed a repudiation of President JOHNSON's policy in Vietnam. Mr. STONE thought it was more important now than ever to work for peace and asked for contributions to the Women Strike for Peace. This was done and a total of $414 was collected.

(WF T-5, 11/14/66)

"Parade," a Sunday supplement in "The Washington Post and Times Herald" newspaper, a Washington, D. C., daily newspaper, in its edition of October 9, 1966, set forth the following on page two under WALTER SCOTT's "Personality Parade":

LUKE W. WILSON

In September, 1955, WF T-<sup>3</sup>/<sub>8</sub> advised that LUKE W. WILSON was a current Communist Party (CP) member and a permanent financial sustainer of the New York State CP Committee. [In June, 1962, (U) WF T-<sup>3</sup>/<sub>7</sub> advised that WILSON was a financial contributor to the CP in 1962.] (C)

Mrs. LUKE W. (RUTH) WILSON

Women Strike for Peace (WSP)

WSP is publicly identified as a pacifist organization.

The "National Guardian" of December 17, 1966, page 3, contained a news item captioned "SANE Rally at Madison Square Garden - 20,000 in New York ask Vietnam Bombing Halt." The newspaper account mentioned:

"Nearly 20,000 New Yorkers assembled at Madison Square Garden Dec. 8 to demand peace in Vietnam. The rally, commemorating Human Rights Day, was organized by the National Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy.

"In a pledge for peace, the audience demanded of President JOHNSON that he "end the bombing now, call for a permanent cease-fire to follow the holiday truce, order American troops to halt aggressive action now, and agree to negotiate with the National Liberation Front. . . ." (The NLF demands U. S. agreement to withdraw from Vietnam as a prior condition to talks.)"

I. E. STONE, according to the article, was one of the speakers and he said:

" "No government tells the truth. All governments are staffed by liars. But rarely has a government been as untrustworthy as the one we have now. . . What we need in Washington are computers who know how to blush. . . You have to be a crook with a law school degree to understand what these crooks are doing." "

"Apparently locating his most powerful crooks in the Pentagon, STONE said that the U. S. 'military blocks the peace.' Calling for negotiations to end the conflict, STONE declared that if the U. S. # I. F. Stone's Weekly Gen. Westmoreland's Self Deceptions

The central thesis of Gen. Westmoreland's debut on the home front is the oldest alibi of frustrated Generals—they could have won the war if it hadn't been for those unpatriotic civilians back home. This was how the Kaiser's ex-Generals consoled themselves over their beers after World War I and this was the soothing syrup the French Generals spooned up after Dienbienphu. But the former lost the war despite all their monocolic splendor because they invited exactly what they had always told themselves they ought to avoid—a war on two fronts, against France and Russia at the same time. The latter lost because their perpetual talk of how they were really winning, when year after year they were losing the finest cadres of the French officer class in the Indochinese morass, finally made the French people realize their Generals were first class liars and their dirty little colonial war not worth the cost. Both cases provide obvious parallels in our own predicament, headed as we are for that major war on the Asian mainland we were always told to avoid, and led by Generals who have claimed to be winning ever since 1961, and still claim it, though, as Westmoreland also said, they see no end in sight! We wonder what kind of logic they teach them at West Point.

The heart of Gen. Westmoreland's opening speech at the AP luncheon came when he said the enemy was "discouraged by repeated military defeats" but hanging on because "encouraged" by what he believes to be popular opposition to our efforts in Vietnam. One does not need to be a military expert to question this assessment. From the enemy point of view, they are doing far better than they had a right to expect. An undeveloped nation of 30,000,000 people, with little industry of their own, has defied the world's greatest military power for six years. The rebels have grown from a handful to a formidable army despite (or perhaps because of) the constant stepup in our bombardment North and South.

Self-deception has been the characteristic of our leadership in this war from its beginning. Self-deception is still the key to Westmoreland's presentation. Even after so many years he still refuses to recognize the popular root of the Vietnamese rebellion. He prefers to see it as something essentially artificial and imposed, which Hanoi can turn off on some magic spigot. First we were going to end the war by bombing Hanoi, but now that we'll soon be running out of meaningful targets in the North, we are in effect promised a quick victory if only we can bomb Berkeley into submission. The General who couldn't defeat the enemy abroad now returns to take it out on the peaceniks at home. Our country, he says, is founded on debate. But now, though we may be blundering toward a world war, we are told that debate is treasonable. The greatest issue in our country's history must be decided by momentum and default.

A "high government source" told an equally anonymous Baltimore Sun (April 21) reporter (we suspect it was Johnson himself talking to his friend Philip Potter), the U.S. had to avoid the buildup of a war psychology at home and conduct the Vietnam war "rather coldly" because our power is so "beyond comprehension" that we mustn't let it get out of hand "if the Northern hemisphere is not to go up in smoke." This is the awful truth a solemn joint session of Congress ought to hear. Yet Johnson is doing what his better judgment tells him not to. Westmoreland is stepping up war fever at home while abroad the wraps are taken off Hanoi, Haiphong and Mig air bases in a way which brings nearer that final confrontation with China and perhaps also the Soviet Union. As Senator McGovern told a Washington Post reporter (April 26) after a brilliant and courageous Senate attack on the growing war madness, "They (i.e. Johnson and the Generals) are really going for broke." As the fog of war closes in, and the drums beat louder, which is patriotism, which is love of country, to fall silent or to try and speak some sobering word?

This is a sample of the kind of pungent comment which has made I. F. Stone's Weekly, Washington's most talked-about and fastest growing newsletter.

The ADA Threatens to Go Republican in 1968 If Offered "Genuine" Hope for Peace

"How ironically absurd it would be if the fate we have feared for so long [destruction of our civilization] were to come not from some titanic confrontation of great principle but from the wasteful and shortsighted pursuit of a conflict in a remote part of Asia."

—The ADA National Board May 20 criticizes Johnson for "reckless escalation" and threatens to become Republican for President in 1968.

For What Can War But Endless War Still Breed?—Milton

Where does one begin to untangle the web in which all mankind is caught in the Middle Eastern crisis? From one point of view this is another episode in a 3,000-year-old struggle between kindred peoples for the same strip of earth. From another it is part of a world rivalry between the two super-powers. So many conflicts impinge on this area, it will be a miracle if an explosion is averted. If there were no America and no Russia, no communism or capitalism, it would make not the slightest difference—as the Bible attests—to the conflict of Arab and Jew. If there were no Israel, it would make no difference to the conflict of Arab with Arab: in the midst of the Arab-Israeli crisis, Jordan breaks relations with Syria over a terrorist action; Nasser rejects a suggestion that the Arab League Defense Council meet because he does not trust his Arab rivals; and while Jihad (Holy War) is proclaimed against Israel in Cairo's mosques, Cairo's Ilyushin bombers drop poison gas and high explosives on Northern Yemen (London Daily Telegraph, May 22) in the civil war between Saudi-backed Royalists and Egyptian-backed Republicans. The Angel of Death is overdue.

At Both Ends of the Red Sea

There is layer upon layer of conflict. While Nasser has snuffed off Israel's lifeline to the Red Sea, a covert duel is already underway between Russia and America for control of the narrow straits through which the Red Sea itself pours into the Indian Ocean. The U.S. has been arming the Ethiopians and the Russians the Somalis in the exploitation of another ancient feud for the African shore of these straits. The impending withdrawal of British power from Aden on the Asian shore has stimulated Russian aid to Nasser and U.S. aid to Saudi Arabia in the Yemenite civil war. Each superpower has its puppet in this proxy struggle while on the secondary level each Arab imperialism exploits the fratricidal passions of the Yemenis. China has declared her solidarity with the Arabs in what Peking sees as a world struggle of colored races against white imperialism, but on the other side of the Red Sea in the Sudan, a half million Negroes in the pagan and Christian South have been killed in a 10-year "war of national liberation" against the Arabs of the Moslem North.* If there is a race problem in the Middle East, it is

On The Spring Mobilization Meeting

I spent a day, its final session, at the Spring Mobilization here last week-end, and I want to say a few plain words about it. The dominant feeling among many, young and old, was that they came (in contemporary lingo) to be switched on, but were only switched off. The New York and San Francisco parades brought out people who had never participated before. They marched to express their concern. They would have done so even if the parade were led by Holy Rollers or Fresh Water Baptists. Because radical elements, to their credit, organized the parades when more moderate leaders hung back, some of the radical groups got delusions of grandeur. They thought they were leading a mass movement for their own particular nostrum. And at the Washington conference they fought among themselves for control of this peace movement, in Lilliputian all-night caucuses of far-out Leftists and far-out Black Nationalists who had trouble agreeing on anything. The outstanding deadlock was the failure to agree on any program of political action. The worst aspect was the contempt and hatred of white—their white allies, not their white enemies—expressed by many of the Black Nationalists. This is a fine way to kill the peace movement. This is how agents provocateur operate.

The peace movement has to make up its mind. Does it want to persuade as large a section of the American people as possible, or to antagonize them? Martin Luther King speaks in terms of black and white together, and in terms of conscience and love of country. Those who want to use the peace movement to preach hate, race war and revolution ought to get out of the peace movement and back to their own little war movements. We are not going to sell peace by spreading hate and hysteria. Everybody is busy drawing parallels with German experience. But the most important one is passed over. Nazism came to power because the moderate Left and the extreme Left were so busy fighting each other, and so full of fratricidal hate, that the the human race, with its tribal animosities and murderous proclivities, its immemorial love of war.

Only the two superpowers, acting in concert, tacitly or explicitly, can possibly prevent war between Israel and the Arab States, or stop one if it breaks out. The failure of the superpowers to fulfil their responsibilities in the past is a fundamental factor. In 1947, both the Western and Soviet blocs joined in the two-thirds vote of the UN General Assembly which partitioned Palestine into Arab and Jewish States. Next year, when the Jewish state was declared, there was a race between Moscow and Washington to see which would recognize it first. The obligation was on both sides to force a final peace and stabilize the area. This was possible only if it were neutralized and withdrawn from the great power rivalry.

The Cold War Interfered

Unfortunately at that very time the cold war began, and with it a little arms race in the Middle East to match the bigger arms race in the world. In 1956, seeing a huge build-up of Soviet weapons in Egyptian hands for a war of revenge, Israel struck in the Sinai and destroyed or seized the armament ready for its destruction while England and France attacked Egypt in an effort to recover the Suez Canal. Again the superpowers acted in tacit concert. Khrushchev and Eisenhower forced Anglo-French withdrawal from Egypt and Israeli from Sinai. But again an opportunity was wasted. In the 10 years since, instead of bringing about a final peace between Israel and its Arab neighbors, the superpowers supplied the arms for the new outbreak. A survey in the London Times May 19 showed that almost $3 billions in armament have been poured into this volatile area since the Second World War not only by Britain, America, Russia and France but also from Canada, Italy, Holland, Formosa and elsewhere. The Times questioned the ethics and wisdom of this huge arms trade. The whole world may suffer from the tinder it supplied.

The Arab-Israeli conflict is too profoundly human to be susceptible to easy solution. But then so is that over Kashmir and so was the Greco-Turkish, but populations far larger than those displaced in the Palestine war have been resettled in the past and peace made. But it has to be imposed from outside. The Arab refugee looks in bitterness across the border and sees lands he lost. The Israeli feels besieged and sees home and children menaced by a recrudescence of terrorism. Reprisal has proven a poor long-range remedy. It was the fear of an Israeli reprisal action against Syria, with the blow that might have struck Nasser's prestige in the Arab Hitlerites were able to take over even though they did not have a majority. To drive away the middle class moderates or to immobilize them, and then to provoke the country with extremist hot air and riot, is the best way to bring a Fascist-style repression. We don't blame the voices of anger and anguish rising from the ghetto, but these are not the best guides to sober political action. How are we going to have peace in the world, when a budding little peace mobilization can't even make peace among its own rival splinter factions, when discussions turn into a kind of vicarious war, satisfying the aggressive impulses and mutual animosities of the participants?

Yet I could not help thinking, as I listened to this unrepresentative bedlam, that if the American people knew what a nuclear war would do to them, if they had any real conception of the suffering, chaos, panic and madness it would unleash, they and their children would be demonstrating by the millions, not leaving the task to this few who—despite all their shortcomings and contradictions—are still the prescient, the handful who sense what's coming, and try in time to raise the alarm. In this they deserve applause. But that's no reason not to try to make them and the peace movement act more sensibly.

world, which led to the demand that the UN forces be withdrawn from Sinai and the new crisis. Israel was created by the UN, the 1956 war was stopped through the UN, this is a UN problem. But all the powers, great and small alike, have defied and ignored the UN when their purposes seemed served thereby. Now when the UN is so badly needed, it may have become too weak. And the smoke which rises from burning Hanoi and Haiphong darkens the scene, making international cooperation between the superpowers more difficult than ever. The effort, at whatever cost to the people of Vietnam, to substitute a Pax Americana for a world order, now exacts its price in the Middle East, when an overextended America—and an anxious world—suddenly look again to the United Nations.

This is the consequence of a world without law, in which every nation is armed for, and insists on the right to, murder. Our prayer for peace goes out, for Arab and Jew alike, and for all mankind.

Dr. Otto Nathan Says We Did the Peace Movement A Great Disservice

"Dear Editor: Your report about the recent Washington conference of the Spring Mobilization Committee gives a regrettably inaccurate account. You call the postponement of a decision on political action the outstanding deadlock of the conference, obviously implying that various other deadlocks occurred. Since you did not mention at all the many positive decisions for future activities, you are giving the impression that the Conference was completely fruitless. Yet the Conference established a record none of us needs to be ashamed of: it decided to organize a new mass demonstration in Washington in October and to coordinate local activities throughout the country on July 4, August 6 and Labor Day week-end; it moved into new ground by its decisions on draft resistance and non-violence, and reorganized and improved its own administrative and decision-making structure. The decisions on draft-resistance and non-violence are a significant departure with great potentialities.

Black Racists An Insignificant Handful

"It is true that no decision was made on political action, which chiefly means action with regard to the 1968 presidential election and which, in my view—not shared by many—was the least urgent business of the Conference. The pertinent proposals were tabled but merely because adjournment had become unavoidable and no time was left. All these decisions were made after long, partly heated, but always orderly discussion in which every conceivable position was expressed. You were completely misinformed by being advised of a 'dominant feeling' of futility, of Lilliputian all-night caucuses of far-out leftists and far-out Black Nationalists, and of a fight for control of the peace movement. Anyone who knows this peace movement knows that no one single group, nor several single groups together, can possibly 'control' it. I deplore, as you do, the hatred of all that is white which was expressed by a few Negroes. But you exaggerate their significance tremendously by suggesting that this is possibly a way to kill the peace movement. These were a handful among 700 delegates.

"You are doing a great disservice to the peace movement

From a Reader in the Army Reserve

"Dear Sir—In your past two issues you have commented quite negatively over the Government not taking some action to call to active duty the Army Reserve forces. You should know more about the Privates and Corporals who make up such forces. To most of us, the Reserves simply represent a substitute for going to prison or Canada. The Army knows (evidently you do not) that we are an alternative form of draft dodgers. I have served (involuntarily) for two years in the ROTC in College and am now completing my final sixth year in the Reserves. For nearly 8 years now I have been in the direct shadow of the military and I am sick of it."

by calling the Washington Conference 'an unrepresentative bedlam.' I wonder whether a similarly representative peace meeting was ever before held in America. The Spring Mobilization Committee, a non-exclusive organization modeled after the Fifth Avenue Parade Committee in New York City, demonstrated its great potentialities on April 15. No one should try to minimize its significance or undermine its continued existence. It is still badly needed." Otto Nathan

[Our comment on the Mobilization had only elicited four letters by Saturday, June 3, the end of the week in which it appeared. Two private notes from old-timers were approving. The most important letter was from Dr. Otto Nathan, the respected economist and Albert Einstein's literary executor. The fourth letter, from a member of Students for A Democratic Society, explained why SDS opposed the Spring marches. "Too often we find ourselves completely alienating people who want to oppose the war but are not comfortable about demonstrations and finding ourselves with no time to go out and reach as yet uninformed people and get them to oppose the war. But the 'Trots,' SWP, DuBois Club people were obsessed with their mobilization. The S.F. mobilization was a joke. Radicals, are they? They refused to sponsor civil disobedience. They wouldn't let people have a mass card burning. They staged a march to a silly football stadium and had peaceniks sitting for hours staring at peaceniks and listening to too many speakers. The Mobilization siphoned off much money and energy from efforts locally to reach really new people."]

Attached report contains reduced activity on part of subject which is apparently attributed to his recent ill health which has been set forth in the report. Although subject did suffer a heart attack his health has now progressed to a point where he has resumed publication of his newsletter. This type of employment appears to require very little physical exertion and for this reason WFO believes it is justified in keeping STONE on the security index even though physically he may not be able to commit acts inimical to the internal security and public safety of the United States.

I. RESIDENCE AND EMPLOYMENT

The Washington Metropolitan Area, District of Columbia Edition, Telephone Directory (1967-68) lists subject's residence as 5618 Nebraska Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C. (WDC), telephone number Emerson 2-8579. His office is listed as the same address, with telephone number Woodley 6-1218.

"I. F. Stone's Weekly (Now published Bi-Weekly)" issue of March 18, 1968, reflects that STONE publishes "I. F. Stone's Weekly," a newsletter, from 5618 Nebraska Avenue, N. W., WDC. This issue indicates that the newsletter is published every other Monday; also that the newsletter is an independent publication edited by I. F. STONE.

"The Washington Post", a Washington, D. C., newspaper of March 17, 1968, in its section, "Book World" contains a book review by RONALD STEEL of subject's recent book, "In A Time of Torment" published by Random House. STEEL describes STONE as "One of the last surviving independent journalists in America, this indomitable radical has for years been the one-man writer, editor and copy-boy of the publication known simply as I. F. Stone's Weekly. Published in Washington and read throughout the nation by a devoted band of subscribers, this four-page journal (now a six-page bi-weekly) has been something more than a newspaper and different from a magazine. Undefinable in any other than its own terms, it has filled the enormous gap we never knew existed until I. F. STONE came along and made us aware of what we are not getting in our pabulum press."

In referring to STONE's book, "In A Time of Torment" STEEL stated that the book is a guide to the 1960's and that its content is "culled mostly from the pages of his own Weekly and supplemented by some longer pieces from The New York Review of Books--a forum in which STONE has done some of the best writing of his career and where he has found an attentive new audience. A successor to an earlier collection entitled

The Haunted Fifties, this is an engrossing chronicle of our times and of the decisions imposed upon us by our public officials. The titles of these works may seem a bit dramatic, but only a manic ostrich could call them inaccurate. Today America seems to be living under some kind of curse, yet STONE never takes the easy way out of pessimism or despair. With an abiding faith in human reason, he believes that the truth will set us free--and digs it out whether we want to hear it or not."

II. STATUS OF HEALTH

"The Washington Post" newspaper of August 29, 1967, carried a news item datelined New York, August 28, 1967. This article stated, "I. F. STONE, editor and publisher of Stone's Weekly in Washington, D. C., will leave University Hospital Tuesday and will resume publication of his newsletter in October, it was learned today."

"STONE, 59, underwent surgery three weeks ago for a detached retina and two days later suffered a heart attack which placed him on the critical list."

III. FOREIGN TRAVEL

The passport file of the subject maintained at the Passport Office, U. S. Department of State, WDC, disclosed that STONE was issued passport Number H1188491 on September 25, 1967, at WDC. The passport was made valid for three years' travel to all countries except Cuba, Mainland of China, North Korea and North Vietnam. This passport may be renewed for two additional years.

STONE in his application for passport which was dated September 22, 1967, gave his permanent residence as 5618 Nebraska Avenue, N. W., WDC. He indicated that he contemplated leaving the United States approximately September 29, 1967, from New York, New York, and that he would be away from this country for two weeks' travel in England and France. The purpose of travel was given as "convalescence and journalism".

IV ORGANIZATIONAL AFFILIATION

A. The December, 1966, issue of "Rights" distributed by the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (ECLC) on page 34 contains the listing of current officers and National Council members of the ECLC. Subject's name appears in this listing as a member of the Executive Committee, ECLC.

(WF T-1, 4/3/67)

ECLC is characterized in the Appendix.

B. Sponsor for the Washington Area Committee For The Abolition of The House Un-American Activities Committee, (WACAHUAC)

The subject agreed to allow the WACAHUAC use his name as a sponsor for the WACAHUAC.

(WF T-2, 1/12/68)

WACAHUAC is characterized in the Appendix.

V. MISCELLANEOUS

The subject's name and address appeared on the current mailing list of the Weekend and Midweek Editions of "The Worker".

(WF T-3, 4/18, 22/67)

"The Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper.

On May 20-21, 1967, a weekend conference of the Spring Mobilization Committee To End the War in Vietnam was held at the Hawthorne School, 501 I Street, S. W., Washington, D. C. Subject was present at this affair. This conference was held to protest the current administration's policies regarding the war in Vietnam. Numbers attending the affair ranged from 300 in the a.m. of May 20, to about 750 later the same day.

(WP T-4, 5/22/67)

The Committee on Un-American Activities of the United States House of Representatives, in a report dated March 31, 1967, entitled "Communist Origin and Manipulation of Vietnam Week" (April 8-15, 1967), contained the following information: "The Vietnam Week, which is sponsored by the Student Mobilization Committee and the Spring Mobilization Committee had its inception in a conference held in Chicago, Illinois which was instigated and dominated by the Communist Party, United States of America. 'Communist organizations, the Communist press, Communists fronts, and individual Communists are united in giving their all-out support for Vietnam Week and all activities and demonstrations associated with it.' Communists are playing dominant roles in both the Student Mobilization Committee and the Spring Mobilization Committee."

WF T-4 advised on September 25, 1967, the name of the Spring Mobilization Committee To End the War in Vietnam was changed to the National Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam during the Summer of 1967.

On June, 15, 1967, subject was the featured speaker at a meeting sponsored by the Southwest Group of Concerned Citizens for Peace held at the Riverpark Mutual Apartments, South Commons Room, 1301 Delaware Avenue, S. W., Washington, D. C.

STONE spoke about the world conditions and United States history as well as the causes of wars since World War I. In regard to Vietnam, STONE stated that he had been to Saigon; that he is opposed to the war in Vietnam as it only leads to destruction of that country. He stated that he did not think that South Vietnam was really interested in communism and did not think that the National Liberation Front was a true communist organization. STONE stated that Secretary of State DEAN RUSK is the main cause for the trouble in Vietnam. He stated RUSK misjudged the situation in China as far back as 1951. Among other thing he stated the only program that he knew to end the war was in the field of education. He maintained that our pacification program is faulty as it is no more than a carbon copy of the French pacification program in Morocco in World War I stating that that program did not work and that our program would not work either.

(WF T-5, 6/16/67)

On January 15, 1968, a convention of American Women (JEANNETTE RANKIN BRIGADE) sponsored by the Women Strike for Peace (WSP) was held at the Shoreham Hotel, Connecticut Avenue and Calvert Streets, N. W., Washington, D. C. Subject was among those who attended this affair.

WFO 100-22285

This convention which numbered approximately 2800 people, mostly women, discussed plans to effectively protest the war in Vietnam.

(WT T-4, 1/16/68)

WSP is publicly known as a pacifist organization.

No additional information for the subject during the past year was located at the following:

Records of The Credit Bureau, Incorporated, Washington, D. C., checked by IC [redacted] March 8, 1968;

APPENDIX

EMERGENCY CIVIL LIBERTIES COMMITTEE

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., contains the following concerning the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee:

"Emergency Civil Liberties Committee

"1. 'The Emergency Civil Liberties Committee is an organization with headquarters in New York, whose avowed purpose is to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities and discredit the FBI. **** The Committee finds that the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, established in 1951, although representing itself as a non-Communist group, actually operates as a front for the Communist Party. It has repeatedly assisted, by means of funds and legal aid, Communists involved in Smith Act violations and similar legal proceedings. One of its chief activities has been and still is the dissemination of voluminous Communist propaganda material.'

'Frank Wilkinson was called as a witness when he appeared in Atlanta as a representative of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee to propagandize against the Committee on Un-American Activities and to protest its hearings. In 1956, Wilkinson was identified as a Communist Party member by a former FBI undercover agent within the party. Summoned at that time to answer the allegation, his reply to all questions was, "I am answering no questions of this committee." This also became his stock reply to questions when he appeared during the Atlanta hearings. **** Wilkinson has since been convicted of contempt of Congress and sentenced to one year in jail.'

'Disputing the non-Communist claim of the organization, the committee finds that a number of other individuals connected with the ECLC also have been identified under oath as Communists. ***'

(Committee on Un-American Activities,
Annual Report for 1958, House Report
187, March 9, 1959, pages 34 and 35)

"2. 'To defend the cases of Communist lawbreakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the *** Emergency Civil Liberties Committee. When the Communist Party itself "is under fire these fronts offer a bulwark of protection."

(Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee Handbook for Americans,
S.Doc. 117, April 23, 1956, p. 91)"

APPENDIX

NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO ABOLISH THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," issued December 1, 1961, by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Page 115, contains the following citation regarding the National Committee to Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NCAUAC):

"Cited as a 'new organization' set up in the Summer of 1960 to lead and direct the Communist Party's 'Operation Abolition' campaign. Seven of the national leaders of this group have been identified as communists.

"(Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1278 on the Truth About the Film 'Operation Abolition,' Part 1, October 3, 1961, page 5)"

A source has advised that the NCAUAC changed its name on March 3, 1962, to include the word "House" in its name, thereby becoming known as the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NCAHUAC). A national meeting of this organization was held in Chicago, Illinois, on April 27 and 28, 1963.

A second source advised on May 11, 1967, that as of that date the NCAHUAC continued to function with headquarters at 555 North Western Avenue, Los Angeles, California.

APPENDIX

WASHINGTON AREA COMMITTEE FOR THE ABOLITION OF THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

A source advised during June-August, 1961, that the Washington Area Committee for the Abolition of the House Un-American Activities Committee (WACAHUAC) was founded at a public meeting in Washington, D. C., on June 8, 1961, to campaign for the abolition of the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA). Selma Rein was elected Secretary of the WACAHUAC on June 23, 1961, and the organizations's policy statement, as rewritten by Joseph Forer, was accepted by the WACAHUAC Executive Board in August, 1961.

A source advised on June 28, 1963, that Selma Rein had resigned as WACAHUAC Secretary and that her replacement would be assisted by Selma Samols. However, source, on May 3, 1967, advised the position of Secretary is currently vacant. At various times during 1966-1967, the source and a second source provided information showing most of the WACAHUAC Executive Board meetings have been held at the home of Ethel Weisser and that Weisser and Samols, along with Ralph Russell, the current Treasurer, actively participate in the affairs of the WACAHUAC.

The first and second source, on May 3, 1967, advised the WACAHUAC is affiliated with the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NCAHUAC).

A third source had identified Selma Rein, Selma Samols and Ethel Weisser as Communist Party (CP) members during the period 1953-1954. The source, in 1953, advised that Ralph Russell was considered by an individual of importance within the CP in the District of Columbia as being a "very good person."

Joseph Forer is one of the attorneys who has represented the CP, USA before the United States Court of Appeals and the United States Supreme Court. In September, 1959, a fourth source advised that a member of the National Committee of the CP, USA had recently referred to Forer as "one of the most important communists in Washington, D. C."

The NCAHUAC is characterized separately in the Appendix.

FEDERAL EMPLOYEES AGAINST THE WAR IN VIETNAM

RE: ON 10/22/92

9803 add/htg
Comp # 318309

On March 25, 1968, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, reported that an organization known as Federal Employees Against the War in Vietnam (FEAWV) sponsored a meeting at the Lincoln Memorial Congregational Temple, 1701 11th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. (WDC), on the night of March 24, 1968.

This meeting, attended by about 150 predominately white young adults commenced at approximately 8:30 p.m., and ended about one hour later. The featured speaker was Isidor Feinstein (I.F.) Stone, publisher of "I.F. Stone's Weekly," a WDC newsletter dealing with current events.

According to this source, and a second source who has also furnished reliable information in the past, the meeting was opened by Mike Tabor, an employee of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW), WDC, who complimented those present for their bravery in attending while knowing their Government jobs might be at stake. Following his introductory remarks Tabor introduced I.F. Stone.

Stone spoke out against the war in Vietnam saying it is an immoral and foolish war. He said that the United States is bogged down in a war that apparently cannot be won, and that the thirty billion dollars a year being spent on that war should be used to improve our domestic situation.

FEDERAL EMPLOYEES AGAINST THE

Stone also said the Vietnam war is the result of a conspiracy between the military bureaucracy and the industrial complex in the United States. He ridiculed the Pentagon and intelligence agencies for not being able to see that the average American is opposed to the war. Stone said that both the present Administration and its policies must be changed.

During a question and answer session that followed his talk, Stone stressed that being a Government employee is not a bar to being opposed to the Vietnam war. He said the United States should not attempt to police the world, and should leave the solution of world problems to the United Nations. He described the House Committee on Un-American Activities as a most un-American institution.

Mike Tabor then spoke of the need for money to run an advertisement in WDC newspapers on April 1, 1968, setting forth their position on the war. He said they had $690. on hand, but would need between $2,900 and $3,500 to pay for the advertisements. A collection was taken, but the amount received was not announced.

A Mike Gerhardt, a HEW employee, then spoke on the signature petition drive, and urged those present to work in their respective agencies to obtain signatures.

He announced that beginning Tuesday, March 26, 1968, leaflets would be distributed and efforts made to obtain signatures during the last fifteen minutes of the work day at HEW. He said there would be no work stoppage, and said that they could not solicit money on Government premises.

He also said that he would present the petition signatures at a White House gate at 2 p.m., Sunday, March 31, 1968, but said there would be no picketing or demonstrating at that location.

Gerhardt also announced that following presentation of the petition signatures a social tea and a discussion on the art of fund raising would be held at 1620 S Street, N.W., WDC.

[REDACTED]

Washington, D. C.
March 25, 1968.

I. F. Stone was a guest speaker at a meeting of what appeared to be a group of Government employees against the war in Vietnam, held at the Lincoln Memorial Congregational Temple, 11th & R Sts., N. W., Washington, D. C., on Sunday evening, March 24, 1968.

The meeting got under way approximately at 8:30 p.m., and broke up shortly after 10:00 p.m. There was a short question and answer session, and about 285 people were present, predominantly white. The meeting was conducted in orderly fashion, and there were no disturbances.

A Mike Tebron (phonetic) of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW) made the introductory remarks, and thanked those present for coming out to the affair. He complimented them for their bravery in attending, knowing that their Government jobs might be at stake. He said that Stone was there to speak out against the war in Vietnam, the Hatch Act, and the great Bay of Tonkin fraud. He outlined Stone's activity in the newspaper field, saying he was once editor of PM, served on the editorial staff of the Philadelphia Inquirer, and is now editor of his own newsletter, I. F. Stone's Weekly, published biweekly.

I. F. Stone then spoke out against the war in Vietnam, saying it was an immoral war and a foolish one. He said he would only be repeating what he publishes in his newsletter, and that anyone interested in following that situation, can do so by reading his publication. He said America is bogged down in the war, and that we are pouring too much money into it, that it is costing us 30 billion dollars a year to support that war. Stone condemned the war as a unilateral action on part of the United States, and that we should have a new Geneva Conference. He said the war is the result of a conspiracy between the military bureaucracy and the industrial complex. He ridiculed the Pentagon and the intelligence agencies in the Government for not being able to see what the average American sees, that he is against the war in Vietnam. He mentioned Kennedy as they are for peace in Vietnam. He said our Administration and its policy must change, and he wants to see President Johnson out of the Administration.

Tebon (phonetic) spoke on the need for funds to pay for the cost of running ads in the Washington newspapers on April 1, 1968 setting forth their position against the war. He said they have but $690.00 on hand, but will need $2900 to $3500 for the ads.

Madelaine Gold spoke on the necessity of raising funds for the newspaper ads and the signature petition efforts. A collection was taken up, but the amount was not announced.

A Mike Gearhart (phonetic) spoke on the signature petition drive. He urged those present to all work in their separate agencies on the petition. He mentioned that the signature petition will contain the solicited names, not necessarily the real names, and there was some laughter about this. He said that starting Tuesday, during the last 15 minutes of the work day at HEW, leaflets would be passed out, and efforts made to add to the signature drive. He mentioned there would be no work stoppage, and that they could not solicit money on Government premises, but that all should work hard to persuade others to join in the petition.

In regard to fund raising, Madelaine Gold gave a telephone number, 544-5605 (?) or 544-5645, at which further information could be obtained.

Mike Gearhart (phonetic) also mentioned that he would present the signature petition to the gate at the White House next Sunday, March 31st at 2:00 p.m. There will be no demonstration and no picketing. After the presentation, there will be a social tea at 1620 S St., N. W., and a discussion on the art of fund raising.

The above is a xeroxed copy of the original informant report.

All necessary action which should be taken in connection with this information has been taken.

I. F. Stone's talk on the Vietnam conflict was already in progress when this observer arrived. If there was something said about the Draft other than a Protest March on the Agenda, it must have been concluded by 8:30, because at that time, I. F. Stone was concerned with the stupidity of Gen. Westmoreland's Vietnam Policy of attempting to win the war by killing more of the enemy than the enemy kills of our men. Mr. Stone went on to say; that before starting the Vietnam conflict, not once has the Administration consulted other Nations on their opinion of the U. S. going into Asia. Had that been done, the reply would have been No!

This question was asked of Stone: "Mr. Stone, what's your opinion of Johnson nomination?" Stone's reply: "I hope that does not occur, because Johnson is fraudulent by direction of the 'money' people, who are financing the war with aims of taking over the Black Peoples of the world!"

So went Mr. Stone's general thought projection.

A group of Federal workers against the war in Vietnam held a meeting at Lincoln Temple, 1707 R. st. NW, Washington DC, at SPM, March 24, 1968. I.F.Stone was guest speaker.

About 175 persons attended the meeting, most of them white, young couples.

Stone spoke for about an hour, including a question answer period. Most of Stone's presentation was in generalities opposing the U.S. participation in the war in Vietnam. Stone said that "HUAC is the most unAmerican institution in the country," which drew mild applause from the audience. He also said that "we must get away from the idea of Pax-Americana and world policeman and leave solutions to United Nations." Again the audience responded with applause. In answering a question, Stone said that "we must support any candidate who offers a change from Johnson;" again applause.

After Stone finished speaking, one of the organizers of the sponsoring group gave an introduction to the group by saying that there were four organizers (the only names mentioned were: Bill Cushington, and Chuck Moran - phonetic spellings); that the group was non-partisan and was not supporting any particular candidate for president, but was simply a group of people against the war in Vietnam. The unidentified spokesman also said that a collection was being taken to help pay for a full page ad in the newspapers on April first with the names of Federal employees who have signed a statement opposing the war.

The meeting adjourned about 10PM.

LOS ANGELES COMMITTEE FOR DEFENSE OF THE BILL OF RIGHTS, formerly known as Los Angeles Committee for Protection of Foreign Born (LACDBR)

A source advised in May, 1968 that the LACDBR has expanded its former scope of interest relating to the foreign born, and has become a militant general defense organization allegedly seeking to safeguard the rights of all individuals, including the Foreign Born, as well as those seeking to avoid military service in the Armed Forces of the United States.

The LACDBR is a non-membership organization which is represented by an Administrative Board of about 125 individuals from loosely organized area committees interested in the work of the LACDBR. These board members are invited by ROSE CHERNIN, Executive Director of the LACDBR, who is the guiding, dominant, and motivating force behind the LACDBR. Its headquarters are maintained at 326 West Third Street, Los Angeles, California.

Another source advised in May, 1968, that ROSE CHERNIN is currently Organizational Secretary of the Moranda Smith Section of the Southern California District Communist Party (SCDCP).
